MAID EASILY WINS GIANTS BUNCH HITS ROSEDALE STAKES AND WIN THE GAME

Victory a Big Surprise-Was Practically Neglected in Betting.

G. Burns, easily won the Rosedale stakes to-day. Her victory was a big surprise, and she was practically neglected in the betting, closing at 15 to 1. Golden Agnes, the favorite, was unfortunate in drawing an outside position. She tired badly at the end. King James, under 120 pounds, made his first appearance.

First race—selling, two-year-olds.

Day's Feature at Pimileo.

Pimileo. May 6.—The magnificent fumping of Sir Wooster, in consolation steeplechase, was the feature of today's card. The geldings performance was most attractive, and should prove only a workout for the big jumping stake to-morrow. The Electric Park purse went to Bell Mawr, equal favorite with Jolly, at 3 to 1. Cismont proved a good thing, at 3 to 1. In will game to-day. The winners made only four hits, and a good thing, at 3 to 1. In will game to-day. The winners made only four hits, and the losers did not make a first offering of the day, and the third event was just an exercise gallop for Whist, the 1 to 2 favorite. Track fast; weather fair. Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON.

With Revelle in the box, Messitt behind the bat, and the Colts keyed up to the last note for the fast game of the series, that game outhful to come home to roost this afternoon. Errors and hard luck did the awful work yesterday, and the bard luck pat will hardly come twice in the same spot. Besides, Revelle is Yucky.

Martin Walsh was working out in the bail park yesterday atternoon, and the bunch of speed that he showed was something to sleep on. He was somewhat wild with it all, but the way it hose benders arrived was sweet. Besides, he is on good behavior now and has put forward a make-good-or-no-pay proposition that should work well if he really means it.

Umpire Davis was a supposition that should work well if he really means it.

Hits and Errors Feature of Listless Game-New Pitcher Tried Out.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., May 6.—Hits and er-rors were the features of to-day's game, won by Danville by the score of 9 to 7. It was the freaklest ex-hibition seen here in many a day. Slow and listless, full of bonehead stunts and wild plays, it was decidedy lacking in interest, and proved scant ly lacking in interest, and proves scant entertainment for a small crowd of fans. The very cold and raw wind from the east acts to some extent for ragged work. Cefalu, the new find, lasted one inning, and was succeeded by Jenkins, who retired in the eighth, giving way to Holland, left fielder, who twirled the remainder of the game. Loos was effective until the eighth inning, when he was so badly pounded that Bussey took his place. The score:

Umpire Davis was really surprised yesterday afternoon when he dug out the home plate and found it in almost exactly the same place he left it in Thursday evening. Of course it was with some difficulty that the plate was located in a close slide home, but the happy-faced ump was there with the happy-faced ump was there with the agoods and his luck held good. He will stay with the league if he continues at the clip that he has shown in the two games here this week.

There was very little wrong with the game that Peterson pitched yester-day afternoon. In view of this fact Owner Bradiey stated that he was entirely pleased with the big boy's line of work. All other things being equal, he had slightly the shade on the Lynch the happy-faced ump was there with the goods and his luck held good. He will stay with the league if he continues it tooked as if he had returned to his preliminary season form.

ST. LOUIS LOSES AGAIN

St. Louis took the lead in the fourth, but Cleveland went to the front in the fifth. With two out, Turner trippled with the bases filled. Lajoie followed wift a single, four runs being the result. Links wildness almost enabled St. Louis to tie the score in the ninth.

arned about yesterday, arretty much his own way. The couldn't make good on him when men were on the bags to save their lives. Also the Hill Climbers worked like Swiss watches behind him, and there were no raw spots.

In conclusion, Mr. Bradley, four loads of clay, well tamped down, about first base and home will do as much good as anything that the mind can suggest right at this point. It would make the game prettler and the spectators more game prettler and the spectators more contented. The players would benefit and the patrons of the game would think they were getting the best there is in the baseball line. Think it over,

FIELD DAY FOR DEAF AND BLIND

Running and Field Events to Be Held by Staunton Institute Next Saturday.

Former Lynchburger Will Take Titman's Job Until Right Fielder Gets Well.

Fielder Gets Well,

Jack Ohl, whe, when he was bought from the Washington Americans, was touted as a phenom, but who failed to make good when it came down to cases, was given his release yesterday and left Richmond in the afternoon. Ohl stated before he left that he had no made the showing in Richmond that he had hoped for, and could see no reason why he should stay longer.

Shorty King, who was released by Lynchburg last week, and who has been waiting to see Jack Lawler all the week, has been signed to play the right garden while Titman is on the sick list, and will probably be with the Coits for some weeks. King is an outfielder, and although he has been in bad this spring, has a rather good record behind him. He didn't show up at all well this season, however, and Lynchburg let him go.

KEEP COOL

If anybody says anything to you to make you feel hot in the collar keep cool is the easiest way. If you have a great task to perform or if the weather outside is warm, keep cool. The way to do this is to have a fan in your home or office and you can keep cool all the time. A few cents spent in this way will make you comfortable. The fan can be attached to any lighting fixture. Call Virginia Railway and Power Company, Madison 2409.
